

You must clearly state the name of the site you have studied at the start of each answer.

In your answers you must clearly state the specific time(s) in your site's history that you are writing about.

Answer any two questions.

1 How typical is your site when compared to other sites of the same type? [20]
 Use physical features of the site as well as your knowledge to support your answer. [5]

 Spelling, punctuation and grammar and the use of specialist terminology [5]

2 Choose one period in your site's history. [20]
 Explain how a historian could use your site to answer questions about people's lives during that period. [5]
 Use physical features of the site as well as your knowledge to support your answer. [20]

 Spelling, punctuation and grammar and the use of specialist terminology [5]

3 Choose one period in your site's history. [20]
 What are the benefits and challenges of using the physical features of your site to investigate how it looked at that time? [5]
 Use physical features of the site as well as your knowledge to support your answer. [20]

 Spelling, punctuation and grammar and the use of specialist terminology [5]

