

Choose one of the following images and complete the task.

Write about a day in the life of this puppy.

Think about what might happen at different times of the day or some activities that the dog might enjoy doing. What might its thoughts and feelings be?

Collect some words and phrases to use in your writing before you start. You might want to use a thesaurus to help you.

Start with: Today has been an amazing day ...

Write a 500 word story that ends with a sunrise

Think about what might have happened during the night until the sun came up. Think carefully about the setting and your characters, are they people, animals or something else?

Collect some words and phrases to use in your writing before you start. You might want to use a thesaurus to help you.

Start with: What a beautiful sight to see after last night ...